PARTY GAMES EVENT AT LOCAL MUSEUM

The Interactive Museum of Gaming and Puzzlery is having their annual Party Games Game Party next week.

Beaverton, OR -- October 16th, 2014

The Interactive Museum of Gaming and Puzzlery (IMOGAP) is holding their annual Party Games Game Party on Saturday the 25th of October. They will be open from 11 am until 7 pm. There will be activities all day including Music, Food, and more rules than you can shake a stick at. Most of all there will be fun party games for people including, but not limited to, Charades, the new Werewolf (Mafia) sets from Kickstarter, Fictionary, Pictionary, Mario Party, Dare, Twister, Apples to Apples, Cards Against Humanity, The Great Dalmuti, Guillotine, and The Rocky and Bullwinkle Role Playing Party Game. In the evening there will be dancing and awards added to the mix.

All ages are welcome, and admission is free all day. There will be prizes for gamers who play well, discounts in the gift shop, and refreshments available.

IMOGAP is Beaverton's interactive museum of gaming and puzzlery. It is open 11-7 Tuesday through Saturday at their location off of Hall street, at 8231 SW Cirrus Dr., Beaverton, OR 97008. The museum features more than 2,500 games in their collection, ongoing exhibits about gaming culture and history, and a play area where museum members can try their hand at an old favorite, or a brand new game. They also have a small shop where games, and other gifts, may be purchased. More details are available at IMOGAP's website <http://www.imogap.org>, including a brochure at <http://www.imogap.org/pr.cfm>.
